WHAT'S ON

Here's your chance to get a feel for what is happening in the workplace.

Employability Matters is a series of events designed to prepare you for the working world. You'll be surprised at the doors that open for your qualification.

High-calibre employers and industry leaders participate on campus in presentations and panel discussions, keen to interact with you, offer advice and talk about career options in their industries.

Highlights over the week include a volunteering expo, leadership presentations, networking opportunities, panel discussions and more.

Events are free to all AUT students, regardless of what you are studying or the year you are in. We encourage you to attend as many events as possible.

Check out the event schedule and register today: aut.ac.nz/em2019
